

NED WOMEN CONFERENCE 2019

Perspectives on Women Development

AIMS & OBJECTIVES:

The conference aims to bring together actors, influencers and stakeholders related with women development, mobility, and participation in different domains at the local, national and international fronts. A major aim remains creating a platform to formally present issues, achievements and ideas that influence discussion, awareness, consensus, advocacy, and future efforts and policies. The event brings together women and men to understand the constraints, struggles of women and the way addressing them will impact communities, societies and countries. The conference also aims to set strategic objectives and actions for gender equality, health, nutrition, education, rights, economic and political representation and empowerment and well-being of women in the 21st century. All these are fundamental requirements to fuel holistic growth and benefit of humanity.
